A.H. Worth COVID-19 Statement

A.H. Worth is continuously monitoring the COVID-19 situation in order to be able to react and to adapt our measures accordingly.

The health and safety of our employees, customers and business partners is our top priority and measures are constantly monitored, reviewed and updated, guided by current UK Government's national guidelines.

With these measures and risk assessments, A.H. worth is helping to protect its workforce, to interrupt chains of infection and to contain the spread of the pandemic.
